

I appreciate such services that VRS has been providing. Your serious consideration should be given to equality of services provided to the hearing persons. We, deaf persons, deserve to be the first class citizens as well.